Community Service and Fundraising Experience 1997-2002

Saving the Foster Farmhouse: An Underground Railroad Station in Walled Lake, Michigan. Formed Community Foundation. Raised $1,000,000 to move the house to new location and establish it on a firm foundation for development into a community resource. Successfully campaigned to name new Walled Lake Middle School after Gertrude Banks, one of the original inhabitants of the house who became the first female doctor in the state of Michigan.
